ACTIVATED CHARCOAL Face mask

Exposed to the daily aggressions of the external environment, the face skin needs natural and appropriate care. To take care of it, Bio4You, French brand of Organic cosmetics, innovates by offering a triple action charcoal face mask which is Organic certified according to the COSMOS standard.

Thanks to its adsorbent properties, it will help reduce blackheads, pimples and other impurities thanks to salicylic acid. It will offer a natural solution to effectively cleanse, exfoliate and purify combination and oily skin.

Made with 99% ingredients from natural origin, this innovation reinforces the Bio4You brand's positioning with quality and organic products, with elegant and refined packaging.

This product is distributed in dietary and organic stores.
